You Served Us Now We Serve You

For veterans, civilian life often includes building a post-military career, no matter one's age, education or background. The professionals at the six Oakland County Michigan Works! service centers are available to provide you, your spouse and family caregivers with comprehensive career planning, training programs, job search resources and more on a priority basis.

Our veteran employment counselors can help you:

- Match your military experience and accomplishments with civilian occupations
- Help you secure military credentials, certifications and licenses that you earned
- Prepare you for conducting a successful job search
- Connect you with disabled/injured veteran resources
- Find additional resources available to you and your family to aid in the transition to civilian life

Oakland County Michigan Works! engages with veteran-friendly employers in many industries and will work on your behalf to help you secure your next job:

- Skills assessment
- Career exploration
- Resumé writing
- Interview tips
- Job placement assistance
- Training programs

No-cost online virtual workshops covering a variety of topics are offered.
