Thank you for inquiring about the Oakland County Mobile Home Repair Program. This is an excellent way to make some of the repairs and improvements you need.

The Oakland County Neighborhood & Housing Development (NHD) division programs are funded through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

If you are interested in the Mobile Home Repair Program, complete the attached application, review the "Gross Household Income Limits" in the chart below. Circle the income limit that applies to your household. Sign and date the application. Provide copies of your most recent income tax returns and proof of ownership of your mobile home.

An Eligibility Coordinator will contact you if there are questions or additional documentation is needed. Applications are processed in order of complete receipt of application.
