HISTORY OF OAKLAND COUNTY EXECUTIVE STRUCTURE

Before 1973, most Michigan counties operated under a General Law form of government, where a county board of commissioners shared executive and legislative functions with other elected and appointed officials.

In 1973, Public Act 139 introduced the Optional Unified Form of County Government, allowing counties to adopt a new structure. This form includes two alternatives: a county board of commissioners sharing executive functions with either an appointed county manager (Unified Form, Alternate A) or an elected county executive (Unified Form, Alternate B). Oakland County was the first to adopt this form in 1974, electing Daniel Murphy as its first county executive. Bay County followed in 1978. Today, Oakland and Bay are the only counties using this system.

Notably, Daniel Murphy's legacy continues in Oakland County, with his daughter Gwen Markham serving on the Board of Commissioners and his son Jerry Murphy on the Oakland County Historical Commission.

The County Executive's responsibilities are similar to those of a governor or mayor of a large city. They administer the government on a day-to-day basis, propose new programs, and revamp existing programs. The County Executive represents the interests of more than 1.2 million residents.

OAKLAND COUNTY EXECUTIVES

1973–1992:
Daniel Murphy

1992–2019:
L. Brooks Patterson

2019–PRESENT:
David Coulter

Under this structure the Board of Commissioners performs a role similar to a state legislature or city council. It acts on proposals submitted by the County Executive and makes proposals of its own. It possesses the legislative and administrative powers granted by state law. The County Executive may veto acts of the Board and the vetoes can be overridden by a two-thirds vote of the Board.

The executive form of government did not change the third branch of government, the judiciary. Similarly, the five other offices headed by officials elected countywide remain unchanged. These are the Oakland County Prosecutor, Sheriff, Clerk/Register of Deeds, Treasurer and Water Resources Commissioner.

OAKLAND COUNTY PARKS

Oakland County Parks (OCP) is dedicated to: creating and operating accessible, welcoming and sustainable parks and public spaces; providing recreational and educational programs and opportunities; preserving open space; stewarding the environment; helping people be healthier; and building resilient, connected communities in Oakland County.

Throughout its history, which began when the parks system was first established in 1966, OCP has played an important role in the lives of Oakland County residents. Many have cherished memories of taking family camping trips, walking the trails, attending nature programming, enjoying golf outings or spending hot summer days at the waterpark.

The parks system started with 190 acres. Today, it boasts more than 7,000 acres with 80 miles of trails across 15 parks and hosts more than two million visitors each year. OCP provides a vast diversity of recreation, leisure and

OAKLAND COUNTY ROADS

Main .....(877) 858-4804

Almost half the highways, roads, and streets in Oakland County are part of the county system, which is under the jurisdiction of the Road Commission for Oakland County (RCOC).

Totaling more than 2,700 miles, RCOC’s road system includes all public roads in townships, except state highways, and through-streets in most cities and villages. It is the largest county system in Michigan, second in size only to the state highway system. Subdivision streets in the townships alone make up more than 1,300 miles.

In 1992, RCOC embarked on a program called FAST-TRAC, an Intelligent Transportation Systems (ITS) effort. The Road Commission has installed “smart” traffic signals operated by computers and video vehicle detection at more than 700 intersections across the county. This is the second largest adaptive traffic control system in the United States and the largest video imaging system for traffic management in the world. The Road Commission was the first local unit of government to initiate a program of this scope and magnitude.

For paving and resurfacing of subdivision streets, property owners can petition RCOC to create a special assessment district through a process prescribed by state law. The process begins by contacting the Road Commission, then petitioning and participating in public hearings.

The Board of Road Commissioners is separate from county general government – establishing policies as authorized by state statutes for management of the countywide road system, administering its own budget and hiring its own full-time managing director and staff.

Citizen requests for information are given special attention by the Road Commission’s Department of Customer Services (DCS). That office may be reached between 7:30 a.m. and 4:15 p.m. weekdays by calling (877) 858-4804 or via email at the Road Commission website at rcocweb.org. RCOC can be reached through the RCOC app, which is available for free at app stores by searching for “Road Commission for Oakland County.”
