

Oakland County IDSO—Standard 7
Attorney Report

Name

P number

Level

What would you like the evaluator to know about you or your practice?

Are there any resources or training topics that would be helpful to you?

How do you track deadlines, hearings, and other appointments?

How do you stay abreast of new law and emerging legal trends?

What resources do you use to conduct legal research?

How many times have you requested funding for an expert from any funding unit in the last three years?

How many times have you requested funding for an investigator from any funding unit in the last three years?

Please provide the case name, case number, court, charges, result, and type (jury or bench) of all trials in any court that you have had during the last three years.

Please provide the case name, case number, court, and charges for the last three evidentiary hearings (with witnesses) and/or preliminary exams you conducted. Please also state whether the request for relief was granted or whether the case was bound over.

If you are not a Category 1 attorney, would you like to be considered for a higher level?

If you are not on a felony list, would you like to be considered for Oakland's list?

Who is your Rule 21 interim administrator?

Have you been removed from an assignment list due to performance or placed on a performance improvement plan in the last three years?

In the last three years, have you had a grievance filed against you?

Have you ever had a consensual admonition from, or been on consensual contractual probation with, the Attorney Grievance Commission?

In the last three years, have you been a respondent in a contempt of court proceeding?
Please provide court, name of judge, and result.

In the last three years, have you been charged with a crime in any jurisdiction?

Please provide a copy of the most recent motion and brief that you filed in a criminal case in any trial court. If you would like, you can submit an additional writing sample.

I certify that the above information is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Date

Attorney