

Access Breast Pumps Through Insurance

Insurance Plan	Type of Breast Pump	New Pump?	Script Required? If yes, from who?	Purchase from Durable Medical Equipment (DME) Supplier?	When can client receive pump?	Additional Information
Aetna	Manual or standard electric pump	New pump or set of breastfeeding supplies with each pregnancy	Yes - OB/GYN	Yes - Aeroflow online, Hart Medical Supply and Binson's Hospital Services	Anytime during pregnancy	Can order online with Aeroflow and Edgepark. Can request replacement breastfeeding supplies.
Blue Cross Complete Medicaid HMO	Dual electric Medela or Ameda pump	Every 5 years	No	Yes - Call 1-888-288-1722 to verify information with J & B DME supplier.	Mother's third trimester - 30 days prior to delivery	Clients can register for 'Bright Start' maternal program for incentives and information.
HAP Empower	Single or double electric pump	New pump with each pregnancy	Yes - OB/GYN	Yes - In-network DME supplier Call 313-872-8100 to determine which DME is covered.	Anytime during pregnancy	Pumps can also be ordered through Edgepark or Aeroflow.
McLaren Health Plan for Medicaid Recipients	Electric pump	Every 5 years	Yes - OB/GYN or healthcare provider	Yes - In-network DME supplier or Edgepark	Anytime during pregnancy or after delivery	No specific breast pump brand is covered. When purchasing a pump, it depends what the DME supplier has in-stock.
Meridian Health	Double electric pump	Every 5 years	Yes - OB/GYN	Yes - Binson's Medical Equipment and Supplies	After 35 weeks of pregnancy	If the pump breaks, they will replace it with authorization from their doctor. The pump can be shipped to the mother.
Molina Healthcare	Double electric pump	Manual pump, electric pump Hospital grade breast pump for rental only	Yes - OB/GYN	Yes - In-network DME supplier	After delivery	Note that Aeroflow breast pumps are out of network.

Insurance Plan	Type of Breast Pump	New Pump?	Script Required? If yes, from who?	Purchase from Durable Medical Equipment (DME) Supplier?	When can client receive pump?	Additional Information
Total Health Care	Double electric pump	One pump per pregnancy per year	Yes - Healthcare provider	Yes - Binson's Medical Equipment and Supplies	After delivery
UnitedHealthcare	Electric pump	Every 5 years with each pregnancy	Yes - Physician	Yes-in network local DME supplier	Client can receive pump when script completed by physician	J & B contacts the physician for the client once the client calls to obtain a prescription.

All health insurance providers can provide the listed breast pumps above or one of the following:
manual breast pump or hospital-grade electric breast pumps (rental).

Other Programs	Type of Breast Pump	New Pump?	Script Required? If yes, from who?	Purchase from Durable Medical Equipment (DME) Supplier?	When can client receive pump?	Additional Information
Women, Infants and Children (WIC)	Manual pump, personal use electric pump, or multi-user loaner pump	As determined with each new delivery and approval by WIC staff	No	No	Manual pump - after delivery Personal electric pump - when returning to work/school Multi-user pump - provided for 30 days, then returned	For additional information on how to qualify for a pump through WIC, please contact your local WIC agency.

No health insurance or WIC and need a breast pump, call nurse on call at 1-800-848-5533 for assistance.