

COMMUNITY DISCUSSION

The Means Matter: Understanding the Law & Mental Health

Learn about current mental health & suicide-related Michigan legislation, the implementation of extreme risk protection order laws and their estimated impact on suicide prevention. Participate in safety planning activities and discussion. CEU's, resources, breakfast, and lunch provided.

Featured speakers include:

Marianne Huff, President & CEO, Mental Health Association of Michigan

Mike Giordano, Officer, Troy Police Department

Hillary Nusbaum, Co-Responder Supervisor, Oakland Community Health Network

Gigi Colombini, Executive Director and Founder of Institute for Hope and Human Flourishing

Who should attend:

Parents · Grandparents · High School & College Students · Public Health · Police · Fire · EMS
Teachers · Medical Providers · Behavioral Health Care Providers · Faith-Based Organizations

September 16, 2025

Oakland Community Health Network
5505 Corporate Dr., Troy, MI 48098

Registration:	Event:
8:30am – 9:00am	9:00am – 12:00pm

This event location & technology support provided by Oakland Community Health Network. Food provided by:

3 CEU's for
Community Discussion:
9am - 12pm · Scan to Register

Free Training Opportunity for Clinicians.
2.5 SW & MCBAP CEU's for Self Care & Secondary Trauma:
Strategies for Clinician Wellness & Resilience:
1pm - 3:30pm · Scan to Register

Event Questions? Contact Chanel Killebrew at 248-760-3801 or killebrewc@oakgov.com
Help is Available 24/7 • Call/Text: 988 • Chat: 988lifeline.org